

THE SCOTTISH RAID

PRESS RELEASE

Sail Caledonia to sponsor a 2014 raid boat

© Kathy Mansfield

Sail Caledonia, the annual sail & oar raid through the Great Glen of Scotland, is inviting applications for a sponsored boat entry for next year's race, which will take place from 24th to 31st May 2014.

The crew will provide their own boat, safety gear and camping equipment. Once there, their only costs will be for meals. Sail Caledonia will waive the raid entry fees and will pay for launching, camping and canal licence fees.

The successful applicants could be from a school or college, part of a community-based scheme or looking to raise money for a charitable cause.

Applications should be sent to info@sailcaledonia.org by no later than 31st January 2014. The race committee will decide the winning application shortly thereafter.

The application should include the following details:

- Type of boat
- Likely number and age of crew
- Experience of skipper
- Why the crew feel that they should get the sponsored place

For more details on the raid, including what to expect and pictures from past raids, please see <http://www.sailcaledonia.org/>